STATE CONVENTION.

PRESIDENTIAL BODY CO.

Raleigh, Oct. 2d, 1865

At an informal meeting of the members of the Convention, held at 10 o'clock, A. M., Hon. E. G. Reade was unanimously nominated for the Presidency.

ORGANIZATION

The Convention was called to order by Hon Lewis Thompson of Bertie, Chairman pro tem

Mr. E. F. Moore, of Wake, moved that a committee of three be appointed to examine the credentials of members elect and take their names. Carried. Messrs Winston of Franklin, Caldwell, of Burke, and Cowper, of Hertford, composed the committee.

The roll of the counties was called, and the committee reported the following as present with proper credentials:

Adams, Alexander, Allen, Baynes, Baker, Barrow, Beam, Bell, Berry, Bingham, Boyden, G W Bradley, Brickell, Brown, Brooks, Burgin, Buxton, Bynum, Caldwell of Burke, Caldwell of Guilford, Clark, Conigland, Cowper, Dockery, Donnell, Eaton, Ellis, Faircloth, Faison, Faulkner, Forebee, Furches, Gahagan, Garland, Garrett, Gilliam, Godwin, Grissom, Harris of Guilford, Harris of Rutherford, Haynes, Henry, Hodge, Jackson, Johnston, Jones of Columbus, Jones of Davidson, Jones of Henderson, Jones of Rowan, Joyce, Joyner Kelly, King, Lash, Logan, Love of Chatham, Love of Jackson, Lyon, Manly, McCanley, McCleese, McCorkle, McCoy, McDonald of Moore, McGehee, McIvor, McKay, N A McLean, Nat. McLean McLaughlin, McRae, Mebane, Moore of Chatham, Moore of Wake, Murphy, Nicholson, Norfleet, Odom, Perkins, Phillips, Polk, Pool, Reade, Rumley, Russell, Rush, Saunders, Settle, Simmons, Sloan, Smith of Anson, Smith of Johnston, Smith of Wilkes, Spencer of Hyde, Spencer of Montgomery, Starbuck, Stewart, Stubbs, Thompson, Warren, Wiley, Williams, Wilson, Winburne, Winston and Wright.

On motion of Mr. Moore, of Wake, Jno. R. Harrison, of Wake, was requested to administer the oath to support the Constitution of the United States to the members present.

The roll being called, the members came forward and were duly sworn.

Mr. Boyden nominated Hon. E. G. Reade for President of the Convention.

No other nomination being made, Judge Reade was unanimously elected and conducted to the Chair by Messrs. Dockery and Boyden.

The President then proceeded to address the Convention as follows:

Gentlemen of the Convention:

As the representatives of the people of North Carolina, we are assembled at a time of great perplexity to reorganize the government which has been disturbed by a protracted and disastrous war.

It is gratifying to know that a virtuous and intelligent people have chosen a body of men distinguished for abilities of much experience and exalted patriotism, fully equal to the grave matters which are entrusted to them.

As the interests of our constituents are the same, it is to be hoped there will be little conflict of opinion among us, and that frank speech and courteous manners will distinguish our intercourse, so that he who has been called to preside over our deliberations will find but little inconvenience from his lack of experience and will be enabled to use the position with which he has been honored, as he earnestly desires to do, for its legitimate object only.

Fellow Citizens: we are going home, let painful reflections upon our late separation and pleasant memories of our early Union quicken our footsteps towards the old mansion, that we may grasp hard again the hand of friendship which stands at the door; and sheltered by the old homestead which was built upon a rock and has weathered the storm, enjoy together the long bright future which awaits us. With the guidance of Infinite Wisdom, and the care of mereiful Providence which I earnestly invoke for the Convention and for each individual member, I invite you to the calm consideration and wise solution of the important questions which are to result in the peace, prosperity and happiness of ourselves and of posterity, and in the strength and grandeur of our nation.

Mr. Moore moved that the Convention go into the election of Principal Clerk, and nominated for that position James H Moore, Esq., of Halifax.

Agreed to, and Mr. Moore was unanimously elected.

Mr. Caldwell, of Burke, nominated Mr. R C Badger for Assistant Clerk, and there being no other nomination, he was elected by acclamation.

The Convention then proceeded to complete its organization by the election of Doorkeepers.

Mr. Grissom nominated Mr. P McGowan, of Wake, Mr. Buck Mr. H B Kingsbury, of Tyrrell, and Mr. Moore, of Wake, Mr. Mark Williams, of Wake.

The Convention proceeded to vote, and Mr. Kingsbury received 74 votes, Mr. McGowan 14, and Mr. Williams 13.

For Assistant Doorkeeper, Mr. Moore, of Wake, nominated Mr. P P. Williams, of Wake, Mr. McCleese Mr. H Hill, of Randolph.

Mr. Hill received 87 votes, and Mr. Williams 15. Mr. Hill elected.

For Enrolling Clerk, Mr. Moore, of Wake, nominated Theodore H Hill, of Wake, Mr Caldwell, of Burke, Bowman, of Yancey, and Mr. Wright, Thomas S Ashe, of Duplin.

Mr. Hill received 55, Mr. Keenan 21, and Mr. Bowman 9.

Mr. Hill was declared duly elected.

Mr. Moore nominated for the office of printer to the Convention, Messrs. Cannon & Holden of the Standard.

On motion of Mr. Settle, Messrs. Cannon & Holden were elected by acclamation.

Mr. Mebane moved that a committee of seven be appointed to prepare rules of order for the Convention.

Mr. Manly moved that the rules of the Convention last be adopted for the present.

Mr. King of Lenoir, moved to amend by inserting the rules of 1861.

Mr. Settle moved to amend by striking out both amendments.

Mr. Reade to and Mr Mebane's motion was adopted.

Mr. Caldwell of Burke, moved that a committee of three be appointed to wait on his excellency Gov Holden to inform him of the organization of the Convention and its readiness to receive any communication he may wish to make.

Messrs. D. R. Caldwell, Jno Pool, and Watson, Jr., were appointed.

Mr. McGehee offered a resolution extending an invitation to the clergy of the city to attend the sittings of the Convention and officiate in succession as chaplains.

The Chairman announced as the committee on rules, Messrs. Mebane, Thompson, Boyden, Phillips, Gilliam, Johnson and Manly.

On motion of Mr. Wilson, the Convention adjourned until Tuesday 10 o'clock.

A letter was recently addressed by some of the citizens of Charlotteville, Va., to President Johnson, promptly stating the difficulties which surround them in relation to the approaching Congressional election They appeal to him for counsel and advice as to their proper course of action. Being wholly uninformed as to whether the test oath will probably be repealed or modified so as to admit Southern members, they have thought it possible that he might enlighten them on the subject. They say their only purpose is to pursue that course which will be most likely to sustain him and his policy in the administration of the government. The Attorney-General to whom the letter was referred, replies that he was instructed by the President to say he he has no more means of knowing what Congress may do in regard to the oath, than any other citizens; but it is his earnest wish that loyal and true men, to whom no objections can be made, should be elected to Congress.—Mr. Speed says, is not an official letter, but a simple expression of individual opinion and wish.

The Prince de Joinville, now in England, and an experienced sailor, has written a letter to a gentleman in Washington reviewing the present condition of the navies of the United States, England and France. He says that the United States navy now has the lead, and that the Government has wisely anticipated the current events by adopting the "monitor" system of small armed vessels, mounting few guns, and by resorting to screw sloops, not iron clad, for cruising purposes. His judgment condemns the unwieldly, broadside, plated monsters which England and France favor. In machinery he directs attention to the want of a heavy cannon gun capable of resisting a high charge of powder. The approach made towards satisfying this want by the rifle gun, and other inventions to the same end not adopted, sufficiently prove that this problem is not beyond the reach of attainment.

The Correspondent of Saunder's News Letter, writes that since the termination of the American war every steamship which arrives off Cork harbor on her homeward voyage from New York and Boston, lands on these shores large numbers of young men who had served in the Republican army, all of whom carry on their persons revolvers, pistols, rifled guns, daggers and short swords, which they openly expose in their preambulations through the city. These arrivals are ever ready to make their conversation on all whom they chance to meet boasting of the preparations making in America by the Fenian Brotherhood for the invasion of Ireland. The fact is well known at Dublin Castle, and astonishment is expressed that active measures are not adopted to check the spread of the evil.

FREEDMEN'S CONVENTION.

The session of this body yesterday was in some respects very interesting

At 9 o'clock a. m., the President called the convention to order, and after prayer by the chaplain, a motion was made for reading the rules.

The Secretary then read the minutes of Saturday's proceedings, which were adopted.

The remainder of the morning was consumed in considering and disposing of various propositions and addresses in behalf of the education of freedmen, among which was one defending negro suffrage and equal rights before the law; which was adopted and laid on the table.

Other important business was transacted, when the convention adjourned to 2½ o'clock.

AFTERNOON SESSION.

At the appointed hour, the Convention was called to order and opened with prayer by the chaplain.

Various addresses were then made by members from different counties of the State, when James H. Harris, of this city, on motion, presented the following address to the Constitutional Convention now in session:

To the Constitutional Convention of North Carolina and Legislature to assemble thereafter:

Assembled as delegates from different portions of the State of North Carolina and representing a large body of the colored population, therefore, we most respectfully and humbly beg leave to represent to you, and through you to the people of the State, something of our situation and our wants as a people.

Earnestly disclaiming all wish to forestall your action or to dictate in the solemn and important duties which have been intrusted to you, at this most critical period, and confiding in your justice, wisdom and patriotism, to guard the interests of all classes, and more particularly of that class which, being more helpless, will most need your just and kind consideration; they but exercise the right guaranteed to the humblest citizen in this, their petition.

It is with reverent and grateful acknowledgment of the Divine power and interposition, that we accept the precious boon of freedom, resulting as it has from a prolonged and sanguinary struggle between two great powers, and finally decreed by the national will, we looked forward with confidence to see the decree ratified by the whole people of the State.

Though it was impossible for us to remain indifferent spectators of such a struggle, you will do us the justice to admit that we have remained throughout obedient and passive, acting such part only as has been assigned us, and calmly awaiting upon Providence. Our brethren have fought on the side of the Union, while we have been obliged to serve in the camp, to build fortifications and raise subsistence for the confederate army. Do you blame us that we have, meantime, prayed for the freedom of our race?

Just emerging from bondage, under which our race has groaned for two hundred and fifty years, and suffering from its consequent degredation, we are fully conscious that we possess no power to control legislation in our behalf, and that we must depend wholly upon moral appeal to the hearts and consciences of the people of our State.

Born upon the same soil, and brought up in an intimacy of relationship unknown to any other state of society, we have formed attachments for the white race which must be, as enduring as life, and we can conceive of no reason that our God-bestowed freedom should now sever the kindly ties which have so long united us.

Filled with gratitude to God for His great blessing, we would bury in oblivion the wrongs of the past, and wish to become more united, as well as more useful and honorable in our sphere of life.

We are fully conscious that we cannot long expect the presence of government agents, or of the troops, to secure us against evil treatment from unreasonable prejudice, and unjust men, yet we have no desire to look abroad for protection and sympathy.—We know we must find, both at home and among the people of our own State, and merit them by our industry, sobriety and respectful demeanor, or suffer long and grievous evils. We acknowledge with gratitude that there are those among former slave masters who have promptly conceded our freedom, and have manifested a just and humane disposition towards their former slaves. We think no such persons, or very few at least, have lost their working hands by desertion. At the same time it must be known to you that many planters have either kept the freedman in doubt; have wholly denied his freedom, or have grudgingly conceded it, and while doing so have expelled his family from the plantations which they may have cleared and enriched by their toil through long and weary years. Some have withheld a just compensation, or have awarded such pay as would not support the laborer and his family. Others have driven their hands away without any pay at all, or even a share of the crops they have raised. Women with families of children, whose husbands have been sold, have died, or have wrongfully deserted them, have in some cases been driven away from the homes where, under slavery, they have spent a lifetime of hard service. Is it just or christian thus to thrust out upon the cold world helpless families to perish? These grosser forms of evil we believe will correct themselves under wise and humane legislation, but we do most respectfully urge that some suitable measures may be adopted to prevent unscrupulous and avaricious employers from the practice of these and other similar acts of injustice towards our people.

Our first and engrossing concern in our new relation is, how we may provide shelter and an honorable subsistence for ourselves and families. You will say work; but without your just and considerate aid, how shall we secure adequate compensation for our labor? If the friendly relations which we so much desire shall prevail, must there not be mutual co-operation? As our longer degradation cannot add to your comfort, make us more obedient as servants, or more useful as citizens, will you not aid us by wise and just legislation to elevate ourselves?

We desire education for our children, that they may be made useful in all the relations of life. We most earnestly desire to have the disabilities under which we formerly labored removed, and to have all the oppressive laws which make unjust discriminations on account of race or color wiped from the statutes of the State. We invoke your protection for the sanctity of our family relations. Is this asking too much? We most respectfully and earnestly pray that some provision may be made for the care of the great number of orphan children and the helpless and infirm, who, by the new order of affairs, will be thrown upon the world without protection. Also that you will favor, by some timely and wise measure, the re-union of families which have long been broken up by war or by the operations of slavery.

Though associated with many memories of suffering, as well as of enjoyment, we have always loved our homes, and dreaded, as the worst of evils, a forcible separation from them. Now that freedom and a new career are before us, we love this land and people more than ever before. Here we have toiled and suffered; our parents, wives and children are buried here; and in this land we will remain unless forcibly driven away.

Finally, praying for such encouragement to our industry as the proper regulation of the hours of labor and the providing of the means of protection against rapacious and cruel employers, and for the collection of just claims, we commit our cause into your hands, invoking heaven's choicest blessings upon your deliberations and upon the State.

J. H. HARRIS, Chairman.
JOHN R. GOOD,
GEO. A. RUE,
ISHAM SWETT,
J. RANDOLPH, Jr., Committee.

After the reading, on motion it was received and afterwards adopted, with the understanding that it should also be referred to the first legislature of the State.

A committee of three was then appointed to present the address to the first body, consisting of Harris, Galloway and Good.

A resolution to print 350 copies of the Address was adopted, in conjunction with another to supply each delegate with two copies of the same.

The next business considered was the 16th recommendation of the business committee, that colored teachers and preachers be employed where they could be had of competent cultivation.

This proposition elicited a long debate, in which ten or twelve members participated pro and con.—The discussion occupied the attention of the convention from 3 until 5 o'clock, when according to to rule an adjournment was had till Tuesday Morning.

THE LETTERS BETWEEN WIRZ AND WIFE.—It will be recollected that, in the issue of the Washington Chronicle of the 27th, the proceedings of the Wirz trial, Judge Advocate Colonel W. P. Chipman charged Mr. Schade, one of the counsel for the accused, with having passed letters between Wirz and Mrs. Wirz, and with having given money to the prisoner. Mr. Schade immediately acknowledged the charge, and stated that he did it with no evil purpose, but to relieve the wants of the accused. The Court deliberated on the matter, which resulted by the President of the Court informing Mr. Schade that the members of the Commission fully appreciated the action, but Gen. Wallace cautioned him against doing so again, as it might be detrimental to the prisoner.

Yesterday morning, Mr. Schade received the following letter from Mrs. Wirz:

WASHINGTON, D. C.,
September 28, 1865.

Mr. Schade—Enclosed you will find ten dollars, in payment of the ten you so generously bestowed on my husband, Captain Wirz. Allow me to thank you, and may the God of mercy and justice reward, you for your kindness. Very respectfully, yours,

E. WIRZ.

A ROBUST POET.—M. D. Conway, writing from London to the Round Table, says that Tennyson has the frame of a Cyclopean and the lungs of a Stentor, and bids fair to make a notable exception to the declaration of his predecessor to laureateship, that the good die first.

—A troublesome bear was shot at North Elsworth, Maine, the other day, with a gun that was surrendered by the French to the British at Louisburg, N. S., in 1755. It was used in the battles of Concord, Lexington and Bunker Hill; also at the siege of Gas ine, and in the war of 1812 with Great Britain. Its history is traced back for 110 years.

THE CITY.

SOMETHING FOR LOCAL HANDS TO DO.—We are glad to observe that vagrancy and idleness are in no measure to be encouraged among the negroes by the Government. In this city, Capt. Purinton, the excellent Provost Marshal, is picking up all freedmen who have no visible means of support, and who are caught lounging about in idleness. All who are disposed to work can easily find employment, either in the city or on the farm; and those who fall from indisposition to obtain labor, are made to work for a living. They are put upon the streets, and forced to labor until such time as they express a desire to go voluntarily to work. The plan is an excellent one, and operates finely. Already this class of our population has been materially reduced, and some seventy or more negroes are under the weather.

It is gratifying to hear that the same policy will be pursued throughout this district. While Gen. Ruger and Col. Whittlesey will see that the freedmen have their rights, they are resolved they shall perform all the duties which attach to liberty. We regard it as most fortunate for society and the future interests of colored men that vagrancy, which is the forerunner of every grade of crime, is not to be tolerated. Even those who are disposed to commit it will ultimately thank their stars that the ruinous habits of idleness and dependence will not be permitted to grow on them until reform was next to impossible.

CHILDREN'S DRESSES.—Dame Fashion has given more than her usual attention to the clothing of children this season. The prettiest dresses we have yet seen for little girls are gored, cut square in the neck, and worn with a chemisette, very like their mammas. A very popular style, however, consists of a skirt attached to a low body or pointed belt, and worn with a little loose, round jacke. Another style, the latest, is called the "Sheperdess" costume, and is very original. It consists of a petticoat and high Garibaldi body of red merino or lama wool, trimmed with rows of narrow black velvet; over this is worn a skirt and pointed bodice of silk or poplin, in gray or dark blue, the skirt looped up at the sides with black pendant buttons or rosettes, so as to fully disclose the merino underdress. A small round cloak, with a hood, is worn with this costume. Knickerbocker suits are still the favorite style for little boys until they arrive at the dignity of jackets, which are now cut as large and loose as a short sack. Sack overcoats, with capes, are the proper winter over garments. Neat fitting boots, cut high, are indispensable for boys and girls, but persons of taste will ignore the popular red tassels. If tassels are used as a finish at all, they should be very small and black.

A NEW PAPER.—The first number of the Journal of Freedom has been laid on our table. It is published weekly in this city by Messrs. Brooks & Crane, and devoted to the interests of the Freedmen. We are opposed to the principles it is designed to promulgate, but Mr. Brooks, the editor, writes with ability and a good degree of moderation, while Mr. Crane is a first-rate printer and business manager. The Journal contains twenty-four columns of reading matter, and doubtless will be handsomely sustained by the people whose interests it advocates. Subscription $4 per annum; advertising terms liberal.

IMPORTANT TO MINISTERS.—Ministers of the gospel are required by law to affix a five cent revenue stamp to each certificate of marriage they may return to the clerk's office. This is necessary before it can be admitted to record. We would also state in this connection, that a failure to affix the proper stamps, to any instrument of writing requiring the same, subjects the party executing such instrument to a penalty of $200. We would suggest, as far as the stamp on the marriage certificate is concerned, that the party to be married should invariably furnish it. He does not deserve a wife, unless he gives the stamp.

HORACE NOT IN TOWN.—A report was very generally circulated on the streets, late yesterday evening, that the "white hat" philosopher of the New York Tribune, had arrived in the city by the Gaston train. There was a running to and fro of white and black at the different hotels, but no one found him. For their relief, we may say that Mr. G. is not and will not be in the city.

ADDRESS TO THE FREEDMEN.—We understand that Col. Whittlesey, Chief of the Freedmen's Bureau, in this city, made an address to the delegates to the convention last evening. A gentlemen who heard the Colonel says that the counsel given the freedmen was of a character entirely conservative. He did not disguise their difficulties nor conceal their dangers, but as a true friend explained their duties and their rights. The address was throughout such an one as might have been expected from the antecedents of the speaker.

The truth is, the address of the committee which we publish this morning embodies the general spirit of the speech. We are pleased to see the respectful tone with which they approach the State Convention and kindly wishes expressed for their former masters. They can do more by such intelligent action than in any other way.

THANKS.—The Southern Express Company have our thanks for late papers. They always beat the mails and Postmaster General Dennison must look to his honors.

THE YARBOROUGH SALOON—the engineer of which establishment is "POPE'S," of high repute as a mixer of steeple sherry cobblers and other royal drinks—has our thanks for the attention of yesterday. The wine was of superior age and flavor, and the conventioners will, doubtless, endorse this opinion before their labors are ended.

BOUGHT IT.—Jno. G. Williams & Co., bankers of this city, have purchased the fine building, on the corner of Fayetteville and Hargett streets, formerly the property of the State Bank of North Carolina. It will be occupied by the purchasers for their financial business.

QUEER CLAIM.—We saw a person in the city, yesterday, from Charlotte, addressing a crowd upon one of the street corners and insisting that he was a delegate from Mecklenburg upon the basis of two barrels of apples, which he claimed was the property qualification.

WHAT NEXT.—A drink called the Pul-le-ga-roo has been started in this city. The inventor is a Russian, who as a connoisseur in beverages, has a repute equal to that of Soyer in the matter of cuisine.

HOOD'S matchless "Song of the Shirt" made him famous, but KINSEY is making an equal reputation by the sale of that article, linen and woolen, which fits to a t.

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS.—We have only time to invite attention generally to our new advertisements. They show the very age and body of the times throughout the State.

DAILY PROGRESS.

RALEIGH, N. C.

TUESDAY, OCT. 3, 1865.

State Convention.

This body assembled at the capitol at 12 o'clock yesterday, and organized by the election of Hon. E. G. Reade President, Mr. J. H. Moore Principal Clerk, R. C. Badger Assistant Clerk, Mr. H. B. Kingsbury Door-keeper, Mr. T. H. Hill Enrolling Clerk, Messrs. Cannon and Holden Printers.

A Committee on Rules of Order was appointed, and the Convention adjourned to meet at 10 o'clock this morning.

Harmony seemed to prevail, and we trust that the business for which the body met may soon be satisfactorily transacted.

VARIOUS patriots in Virginia, of the secession persuasion, having become convinced that they could not take the required oath to enter the halls of Congress, have withdrawn their names from the contest. Jno. W. Syme, former editor of the Raleigh Register, is one of the number that has withdrawn. We trust that this good example will have a good effect in this State, and prevent men who have been conspicuous in their treason from entering the contest for Congress.

It is a mortifying fact that several ultra Union men have been defeated for the State Convention, and by persons who but recently boasted of their enmity to the Union, but we may proceed with the work of restoration notwithstanding such unfortunate result; to expect, however, that such men will be allowed to enter the national Congress would be madness. ANDREW JOHNSON'S instructions were that none but loyal men should be allowed to vote or take part in the work of restoration, and yet if a man has been kept from voting in this State, who did not come under the fourteen exemptions, no one knows it, while it is known that many are badly affected towards the government. In fact we have been reliably informed that persons were allowed to vote in a neighboring county whose petitions were pending for pardon, and that their right to do so was insisted on by lawyers who were candidates. And all this in the face of Gov. Holden's positive instructions that such persons had no right to the ballot.

We do not mention these things to produce agitation, but from a sense of duty, for we feel that the chances of the State to get back to the Union are growing less and less daily. Not only did men vote who had no right to vote, but we have heard of open rejoicing over secession victories, or what those who are hostile to the government were pleased to term the success of southern principles. We do not say that there are any improper persons in the Convention, but if there are, let them be expelled at once, for the eye of the government will be on us; and if the instructions of the President, that none but loyal men should take part in the work of restoration, be not faithfully carried out, military rule will be continued over us.

We trust that persons in North Carolina who cannot take the oath prescribed by Congress in the act of 1862, will not thrust themselves before the people as candidates for Congress.

If the members of the State Convention desire to get back into the Union, or to have civil law and rule, with all their blessings restored to this suffering people, instead of casting about for new men and manœuvering for the formation of new parties, let them sustain the policy of their conservative Governor and patriotic President. It is best for the State, people, and the country, that the whole people should sustain, support and strengthen these two great men until the work of restoration shall have been completed, for should they be thrust aside, and new and untried pilots be put at the helm, we shall have no assurance of being able to steer clear of the breakers ahead. Gov. HOLDEN may get us back into the Union, but should disaffection and the remnant of secession crush him, all our high expectations and bright hopes for the future will wither and die,

There are four lines of steamers running between Newbern and the Northern cities, and the wharves usually present the bustle and activity of larger cities. The larger portion of the business is now done by northern men, most or all of whom have permanently cast their lots among us, though many of the natives are returning. We see no reason why Newbern should not be one of the first business places along the southern coast; and we shall watch its future with much interest.

MR. EDITOR:—THE FOLLOWING IS STRANGE BUT TRUE.

'Twas late last night that I was sitting, in my chamber, lonely, knitting,
Knitting on the same old stocking, I'd commenced before the war;
Knitting carefully, I was heeling—when methought I heard one stealing,
Stealing softly up the stairway, leading to my chamber door.
This I thought, and listened more.

Soon I heard a gentle knocking—hastily I dropped my stocking;
Dropped my knitting—the old stocking I commenced before the war.
Again, and louder, came the rapping—as tho' they thought that I was napping;
Me a napping? Knitting, napping? Me who never—"Ope the door."
This the voice said—"Ope the door!!"

"'Tis Sally's voice"—says I—"'tis Sally, and I know she's got some news;
And I'm powerful glad she's come too, for I most did have the blues.
"Sally," says I, "Sally, howdye?" "What's the news? Do have a chair?"
"Glorious news, my Peggy darling—glorious news from Market Square,"
"From Shepherd's Store in Market Square,"

At Shepherd's Store, they've got new shoes—such bran new, laced up, tasseled beauties.
Morocco, kid, and patent leather—Congress gaiters, toe-tipped bootees.
Balmoral, Prunello and Creole. Mens and womens, boys and girls;
Such a sight it is to behold—they're the cheapest in the world.
The very cheapest in the world.

And Peggy, dear, they've got new hats—military and civilian.
All the style of Frenchy fashion—a la Emp'reur Maximillian.
And I told my husband, Johnny, "throw aside that rusty beaver."
"Go to Shepherd's—market square—get a hat you gay deceiver,
Get a hat, and burn your beaver."

Well, Peg—John went to market square—he's just got back—rigged up so gay,
A bran new suit from top to toe—and cheap as dirt, for ready pay:
And I advise you, Peggy darling—to give what cash you've got to spare,
To your dear Bobby in the morning—and send him straight to Market Square"
To Shepherd's Store, in Market Square.

"I'll do it, Sally dear"—says I—I'll send Bob early in the morn,
I'll send him straight to Shepherd's Store—I will as sure as I am born,
Good-bye, dear Sally! Must you go? Yes—good-bye, Peggy—now take care,
Be sure that Bob finds the right place—'tis SHEPHERD'S STORE, at Market Square.

NORTH CAROLINA MUTUAL LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY.

THE FOLLOWING STATEMENT OF THE CONdition of the N. C. Mutual Life Insurance Company will show that after all the vicissitudes of the war, the Company is still strong, and merits the continuance of the patronage heretofore so generously bestowed:

ASSETS.

Premium Notes liable to assessment,	$129,198
Bonds of solvent individuals.....	23,004
		$152,202

LIABILITIES.

Losses allowed up to January 1, 1865.....	$35,249
Excess of assets over liabilities		$116,953

To meet the above liabilities, the Directors have ordered the collection of the individual bonds, and an assessment of 20 per cent. on the premium notes, which should yield

Bonds.....	$23,004
Assessments	25,839
		$48,843
Losses.....		35,249
An excess of.....		$13,594

Sufficient to cover all deficiencies.

If the Company shall be patronized by the public as before the war, there will be the annual profits in cash and premium notes which may be added to the assets now in hand, for the payment of liabilities.

Nearly all the above liabilities would have been extinguished but for the refusal of claimants to receive the currency in circulation at the time of the losses. They cannot reasonably complain of some delay. It will be remembered that the premium notes are the accumulations of notes given by insurers for one-half their annual premiums, which the Company had the right to require to be paid in cash. On the face of the note the insurer promises to pay whenever requested by the Directors, and all payments on assessments will be so much added to the sum insured, by diminishing to that amount the premium note to be deducted in case of loss. Many insurers pay the whole premium in cash as a matter of choice. It is believed that the losses may be paid by the first instalment of ten per cent added to the contemplated profits; but it is the firm intention of the directors to meet all their liabilities as promptly as the condition of the country will admit, even if to do so, it may be necessary to order the collection of all the premium notes.

AUCTION SALES
GOVERNMENT PROPERTY
IN THE
STATE OF NORTH CAROLINA.

AUCTION SALES OF HORSES, MULES, ARMY Wagons, Spring Wagons, Harness and other government property will take place from time to time at the principal cities and towns in the State.

These sales will afford farmers excellent opportunities to stock their farms with any class of animals they desire to purchase.

Each sale will embrace a variety of stock, including riding and draught Horses and Mules of every class. A few very large Mules, thoroughly broken to harness, and in fine condition, will be offered at each sale.

The attention of capitalists and dealers in stock is particularly called to the opportunities here presented for profitable investment. Stock purchased for cash at these sales may be sold on credit, with ample security, at a large advance, to farmers who are depending on their growing crops for means to purchase—or may be retained, and sold for cash at a large profit after the crops have matured.

Terms CASH on day of sale.

Sales will continue during the months of September and October will be advertised in this column as soon as dates are fixed.

At CHARLOTTE, on Tuesday, October 3d, 1865, under the direction of Capt. D. W. H. DAY, A. Q. M. Sale to commence at 10 o'clock, A. M., and to continue from day to day, at the discretion of Capt. Day.

NEW SKIRT FOR 1865.
The Great Invention of the Age in Hoop Skirts.
J. W. BRADLEY'S NEW PATENT DUPLEX ELLIPTIC, (OR DOUBLE) SPRING SKIRT.
THIS INVENTION CONSISTS OF DUPLEX (OR two) Elliptic Pure Refined Steel Springs, ingeniously braided tightly and firmly together, edge to edge, making the toughest, most flexible, elastic and durable Spring ever used. They seldom bend or break, like the single Springs, and consequently preserve their perfect and beautiful shape more than twice as long as any Single Spring Skirt that ever has or can be made.
The wonderful flexibility and great comfort and pleasure to any Lady wearing the Duplex Elliptic Skirt will be experienced particularly in all crowded Assemblies, Operas, Carriages, Railroad Cars, Church Pews, Arm-Chairs, for Promenade and House Dress, as the Skirt can be folded when in use to occupy a small place as easily and conveniently as a Silk or Muslin Dress.
A Lady having Enjoyed the Pleasure, Comfort and Great Convenience of wearing the Duplex Elliptic Steel Spring Skirt for a single day will never afterwards willingly dispense with their use. For Children, Misses and Young Ladies they are superior to all other.
The Hoops are covered with 2 ply double twisted thread and will wear twice as long as the single yarn covering which is used on all Single Steel Hoop Skirts. The three bottom rods on every Skirt are also Double Steel, and twice or double covered to prevent the covering from wearing off the rods when dragging down stairs, stone steps, &c., &c., which they are constantly subject to when in use.
All are made of the new and elegant Corded Tapes, and are the best quality in every part, giving to the wearer the most graceful and perfect shape possible, and are unquestionably the lightest, most desirable, comfortable and economical Skirt ever made.
WESTS', BRADLEY & CARY, (late J. I. & J. O. West,) Proprietors of the Invention, and sole manufacturers, 97 Chambers and 79 & 81 Reade Streets, New York
For sale in all first-class stores in this City, and throughout the United States and Canada, Havana de Cuba, Mexico, South America and the West Indies

TELEGRAPHIC.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS REPORTS.]

From the West Indies.

NEW YORK, Oct 2.

San Domingo advices to the 5th September received.

The death penalty has been abolished. U. S. Steamer Mercedite had arrived there and saluted the Dominican flag. Business was reviving.

Rebel Parson Returned.

PHILADELPHIA, Oct. 2.

Rev. Dr. Wilmer, former pastor of St. Marks Episcopal Church in this city, who was south at the beginning of the war, reappeared yesterday, assisting in the communion service at his former church. His presence created considerable sensation, and many of the congregation left the church during service.

Jeff. Davis Assigned New Quarters.

FORTRESS MONROE, Oct. 2.—Jefferson Davis has been removed from his casement prison to quarters assigned him in Carroll Hall.

European.

NEW YORK, Oct. 2.—Steamship Germania, from Southampton on the 20th, has arrived. Cotton was buoyant, with an advance of a quarter to half-penny. Sugar active.

The cattle plague was increasing in London.

Judah P. Benjamin, Secretary of State of the so-called Confederate States, intends to join the London bar.

THE VERY LATEST.

NEW YORK, Oct. 2, 9 p. m.—The steamship Belgian, from Liverpool on the 21st ult., passed Farther Point this evening.

Advices from England say that arrests of Fenians continued to be still made and that the English government's apprehensions were becoming more serious.

The cotton market was excited, and prices had advanced half to three quarters penny higher for American. Sales for one week one hundred and eighty-eight thousand bales. The sales for Friday amounted to twenty thousand bales, closing with an upward tendency.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 2, 1865.

An official statement of the public debt of the United States shows a decrease of twelve-and a-half millions since the 31st of August last.

The Treasury Department has given notice that it will give in exchange for certificates of indebtedness, compound interest and treasury notes to the extent of fifty millions, six per cent. for twenty year bonds at three per cent premium; that is to say, one hundred dollars of bonds for one hundred and three dollars in certificates and notes.

From Louisiana and Texas.

New Orleans, Sept. 26.—A circular, from the headquarters of the Bureau of Freedmen, Louisiana, says that whenever a judicial officer tries freedmen, and shows a disposition to act justly, no interference will be allowed by the Bureau.

A Texas letter says: The destruction produced by the storm is really alarming. In many districts not more than from one-fourth to a third of a crop will be gathered.

New Orleans, Sept. 27.—Hon. David G. Burnett, ex-President of Texas, arrived here to-day en route to Washington, with a large petition in behalf of Jeff. Davis.

Galveston was visited by the most terrific storm ever witnessed, on the 13th. Several houses were blow down and others moved off their foundation, trees and fences prostrated. No one was killed.

The town of Orange, on Sabine river, was blown to fragments. One house fell upon its inmates, mortally wounding one and severely injuring others.—The accounts of the storm are fearful.

San Antonia advices say that Gen. Merritt is actively engaged sending large detachments of cavalry to hunt down the Indians and Jayhawkers, and otherwise protect the frontier. Gen. Custer will soon be ordered to Austin to engage in the same operations in that direction.

IMPORTANT ACTION OF THE SOUTH CAROLINA CONVENTION.—A despatch has been received by the following action of the South Carolina Convention:

COLUMBIA, S. C., Sept. 28, 1865.—The Convention is adjourned after a most harmonious and unanimous session of fifteen days. They have repealed the ordinance of secession, abolished slavery, equalized the representation of the Senate and taxation throughout the State, giving the election of Governor and Presidential electors to the people, ordered voting in Legislature by viva voce, endorsed the administration unanimously, and directed a commission to submit a code to the Legislature for the protection of the colored population.

They have likewise appointed Judge Wardlaw, Alfred Hunger, and Col. Dewkins, to visit your Excellency, in reference to Jefferson Davis, Governor McGrath and Mr. Trenholm.

The election of Governor and members of the Legislature takes place on the 18th of October, and James L Orr is nominated for Governor.

It is understood that Gov. Perry will be sent to the United States Senate. The members of Congress will be elected in November.

An extra session of the Legislature meets on the 25th of October. All are loyal and in good spirits

THE ALABAMA CONVENTION REPUDIATES THE CONFEDERATE DEBT.—The President has been informed by telegraph that the Alabama Convention, by a vote of 60 to 19, has passed an ordinance providing that all debts created by the State of Alabama, in aid of the late war, directly or indirectly, are thereby declared void, and that the General Assembly of the State shall have no authority and are thereby forbidden to ratify the same or assume or provide for the payment of the same, or any part thereof, and the General Assembly of the State shall have no authority and are forbidden to assume or make any provision for the payment of any portion of the debts contracted or incurred, directly or indirectly, by the Confederate States, its agents, or its authority. The Convention has also decided, by a vote of 61 to 25, to submit the amendment to the Constitution to a popular vote.

DISTURBANCE IN WARRENTON, VA.—The Alexandria Gazette, of Friday, says:

We learn that a disturbance occurred at Warrenton on Tuesday, after the tournament, at the Warrenton House, between some of the citizens and the Governmant troops stationed there. Capt. Whitcomb, 1st New York cavalry, during a quarrel was struck in the face; he seized a carbine, cocked it, and pulled trigger—luckily it was unloaded—as the room was full of people—but with the end of the gun, assisted by some soldiers with sabres, the room was cleared without severe injuries being received, though there were vigorous blows. A great crowd soon collected, but a guard being called, they were ordered to disperse, which they did. The captain, very much irritated, ordered those who had been engaged in the disturbance, but who had ridden off, to be pursued. Hansboro was soon arrested and confined, but released shortly afterwards. Richard Martin, whose horse fell with him, a mile or two from town, and broke his thigh, was also brought back, but not confined. Toward night, however, everything quieted down.

THE WIRZ TRIAL.—Ehe J. B. Jones, recently arrested on the Eastern Shore, "Secretary to Mr. Mallory," was not a criminal, but a witness. Here is what he had to say in the Wirz trial on Tuesday:

J. B. Jones sworn—Witness has been a clerk in the Confederate War Department, and had received all the letters directed to the Secretary of War; witness recollected seeing the report of Colonel Chandler on the Andersonville prison, it was either sent by witness to the Secretary, or possibly it was sent for by the Secretary; the general impression was that General Winder was fussy; the authorities were a little afraid of him; there was a great clamor against Winder; Winder went frequently to the Executive office with Mr. Davis; witness did not know that he was the particular favorite of any one; all witness knew of Winder's standing with the President was that the latter sustained him in office, while the people wanted a Southern man or a Virginian in Winder's place; Benjamin was unpopular as Secretary of War.

Phillip Cashmeyer sworn—Witness was a detective officer (special) under General Winder; witness was admitted to his family; Winder's relations with Davis were very friendly indeed; saw him go to see him often; when the order came relieving Winder from duty at Richmond, Winder took it to the President, who endorsed it as entirely unnecessary and uncalled for; Winder then went to Andersonville, where he was made Commissioner General, or Commissary General of prisoners; witness was with General Winder until he died at Florence; witness thinks the order for laying out the Andersonville prison came from the War Department and General Winder sent his son to do it.

Cross-examined by Mr. Baker—Winder recommended his son to lay out the prison: witness has often heard Gen. Winder say that he went to see the President on official business.

After the examination of Surgeon Flewellin, Gen. Bragg's Medical Director, the Judge Advocate stated that he was through with witnesses for the day. Before concluding, however, he complained that Mr. Schade and Mr. Benezetti, alleged authors of a letter in defense of Wirz, published in the New York News, had received communications from Wirz through his wife, in violation of the regulations established by the Government. Mr. Schade, who is one of Wirz's counsel, replied that he was willing to produce the letter he had received in court. The defense then produced the Rev. Fathers Hamilton and Whelan, who testified that in the discharge of their duties at the prison they had never observed Wirz inflict personal violence on any of the prisoners.

It is reported that the Secretary of the Treasury has decided to put a new loan of the 5-20s in the market, subscriptions to which to be in certificates of indebtedness, compound interest notes, and other Government securities.

The New York Times advises the committee on the conduct of the war to summon Lee, Johnston, Longstreet, Early and others, as willing and valuable witnesses.

HELMBOLD'S Genuine Extract Buchu,
For Weakness arising from Indiscretion, Excesses and Impruden[illegible] powers of Nature which are accompanied by many alarming symptoms, such as IMPOTENCY, Lassitude, Indisposition to Exertion, Loss of Memory, Wakefulness, Horror of Disease, or Forebodings of Evil; in fact, Universal Lassitude, Prostration, and inability to enter into the enjoyments of society.

The Constitution, once affected with Organic Weakness, requires the aid of Medicine to strengthen and invigorate the system, which HELMBOLD'S EXTRACT BUCHU invariably does. If no treatment is submitted to, Consumption or Insanity ensues.

HELMBOLD'S FLUID EXTRACT BUCHU,
In affections peculiar to "FEMALES," is unequaled by any other preparation, as in Chlorosis or Retention, Painfulness, or Suppression of Customary Evacuations, Ulcerated or Schirrus State of the Uterus; and all complaints incident to the sex, whether arising from habits of dissipation, imprudence in, or the decline or change in life.

HELMBOLD'S FLUID EXTRACT BUCHU
AND IMPROVED ROSE WASH,
Will radically exterminate from the system Diseases arising from Habits of Dissipation at little expense, little or no change in diet, no inconvenience or exposure; completely superseding those unpleasant and dangerous remedies, Copaiva and Mercury in all these diseases.

USE HELMBOLD'S
FLUID EXTRACT BUCHU,
In all Diseases of these organs, whether existing in "Male" or "Female," from whatever cause originating, and no matter how long standing. It is pleasant in taste and odor, "immediate" in action, and more strengthening than any of the preparations of Bark or Iron.

Those suffering from Broken down or Delicate Constitutions, procure the remedy at once.

The reader must be aware that however slight may be the attack of the above diseases, it is certain to affect his Bodily Health, Mental Powers, and Happiness.

All the above diseases require the aid of a diuretic.

HELMBOLD'S EXTRACT BUCHU
Is the great Diuretic.

HELMBOLD'S HIGHLY CONCENTRATED
COMPOUND FLUID EXTRACT SARSAPARILLA,
For purifying the blood, removing all chronic constitutional diseases, arising from an impure state of the blood and the only reliable and effectual known remedy for the cure of Scrofula, Scald Head, Salt Rheum, Pains and Swellings of the Bones, Ulceration of the Throat and Legs, Blotches, Pimples on the Face, Tetter, Erysipelas, and all scaly eruptions of the skin,
AND BEAUTIFYING THE COMPLEXION.

Not a few of the worst disorders that affect mankind arise from the corruption that accumulates in the blood. Of all the discoveries that have been made to purge it out, none can equal in effect HELMBOLD'S COMPOUND EXTRACT OF SARSAPARILLA. It cleanses and renovates the blood, instills the vigor of health into the system, and purges out the humors which make disease. It stimulates the healthy functions of the body, and expells the disorders that grow and rankle in the blood. Such a remedy that could be relied on has long been sought for, and now for the first time, the public have one on which they can depend. Our space here does not admit of certificates to show its effects, but the trial of a single bottle will show the sick that it has virtues surpassing anything they have ever taken.

Two tablespoonfuls of the Extract of Sarsaparilla added to a pint of water is equal to the Lisbon Diet Drink, and one bottle is fully equal to a gallon of the Syrup of Sarsaparilla, or the decoction as usually made.

☞ THESE EXTRACTS HAVE BEEN ADMITTED TO USE IN THE UNITED STATES ARMY, and are also in very general use in all the State HOSPITALS and PUBLIC SANITARY INSTITUTES throughout the land, as well as in private practices, and are considered as invaluable remedies.
